Job Ready: Long-term jobs for your future

Since 2006, the Job Ready Program has trained, mentored and supported more than 100 participants a year into training and employment, with the support of small and large employers.

We have a strong relationship with corporate and community, well established connections to the local Indigenous community and a reputation for quality support and mentoring.

Our longstanding Indigenous staff, Aunty Beryl Van-Oploo and chef Mat Cribb know what it takes to make it, and stick at it, in hospitality.

About the program

The next Job Ready course begins
February 2017

Certificate II in Hospitality includes:

- Teamwork and workplace communication
- On the job training
- RSA & RSG qualifications
- Ten-week course
- All costs covered

Students who complete the training are mentored into employment in the hospitality industry as food and beverage attendants, concierges, chefs and baristas.

Our team: Aunty Beryl Van-Oploo & Mat Cribb

Gamilaroi Elder Aunty Beryl Van-Oploo is the driving force behind NCIE's Job Ready program. She is a respected leader and business woman who has lived and worked in the Redfern community for over 50 years.

Mat Cribb is a Wiradjuri man and trained chef and educator. He has more than 20 years' experience in hospitality and a strong commitment to sustainable employment.

ABOUT THE NCIE

The National Centre of Indigenous Excellence builds capabilities with, and creates opportunities for, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people while contributing to an excellent Australia for all.
